

Box Me Up

BigXthaPlug

If I lose you tonight
Take my love and hang it out to dry
If I lose you tonight
Box me up and bury me alive

Ayy, if I lose you then I lose
I went by all the rules to keep your love, so I'm confused
But yet you left me high and dry, you loosened all my screws
My heart feel so abused, she dragged until I lost my muse
Now, I'm caged in the zoo thinkin' 'bout what I didn't do, I tried to please you
I guess that wasn't enough because you still ended up leavin'
My pops said don't give up because it's out there, keep belivin'
But it feel like I'm dreamin', steady fightin' for your love
I'm startin' to feel like I been fiendin', gave up, didn't give a reason
I think that hurt the most because now I'm just stuck here thinkin'
The image of you leavin' in my head, it keep repeatin'
And now I'm slowly sinkin', not reachin' out for help, just slowly fallin' to the deep end

If I lose you tonight
Take my love and hang it out to dry
If I lose you tonight
Box me up and bury me alive

Ayy, if I lose you then I might just go insane
Like you might never be around but it's your voice that's in my brain
I really gave you all my heart, you gave it back without even stayin'
But I remain to keep the love I had for you, it never changed
Stuck walkin' in the dark, can't miss the puddles from the rain
You pulled the stitches from my heart, you ever felt that kind of pain?
This time I'll box you there because I'll never be the same
I'm rearranged and at this point I'm losin' more than I can gain (Than I can gain)

If we fall off the edge, and we're no longer flesh
And the darkness comes too soon
Put a gun to my head and then lay me next to you
'Cause all I know is

If I lose you tonight
Take my love and hang it out to dry

If I lose you tonight
Box me up and bury me alive

Box me up and bury me alive
