BigXthaPlug

Aye turn me up a little bit more in the headphones
Yea

Aye

Aye

See lately shit changed

Member the change in my pocket now we hit the club and it rain

Remember them days being a hood super star

Now the whole city saying my name

I can't fuck with these lames

Cut off a handful of partnas

Them niggas weren't rocking the same

But it's part of the game

They hate when you reaching the top

They be throwing the salt on my name

I'm forever the same

These niggas snitch for a Bitch

But I'm solid that shit in my veins

And I'm reppin the gang

If it ain't crip or the 6 bitch it's taliban gang what I claim

I been locked in the cage

Told my team joins for I'd be Damned if I mention some manes

But they can't say the same

Cause these niggas quick just

To snitch on a nigga that's bleeding the game

Like maybe you lame and we are all not built the same

You a bitch boy you told on your gang

I just stay in my lane

I just spent a lil 30 on chains

If he reached then I'm blowing his brain

How the fuck can you claim

That you my day one when

I went in that cell you ain't look up my name

But they can't say the same

Cause I'm a big solid ass nigga

Not on me that shit in my veins

Aye

This shit really just getting ridiculous like

Like I'm really just getting better and better

Better than ever

Let's go

Aye aye

Free Rock and Q till they out

Bitch just bought a new Glock that bitch came with a switch

They ops steady talking bout shit

Can't shoot at my block boy go shoot at a bitch

Since I started rapping I got rich

Before I ever go broke I go back in that fit

Reach for my throat that's a big risk cause

I bleed for respect and I put that on crip

Aye
