

I, I held on for you
Where did you go?
It's only comfort
All I wanted was the truth

Said I, I held out for you
Where did you go?
It's only comfort
All I wanted was the truth

The air feels heavy
Bevvy would demand
That the evenings ready
But I'm steady with my hand
Need to breathe already
But there's many people waiting
And they'll worry I've got nothing they can take
And the night feels fine
But an underlying pressure
That the lights will fade
Will the music last forever
Cause If not, a stake
It's the bottom of the line
And the Legacy to break
Hoping God is on my side oh

Hoping God is on my side oh
(Hoping God is)
Hoping God is on my side oh

I, I held out for you
Where did you go?
It's only comfort
All I wanted was the truth

Said I, I held out for you
Where did you go?
It's only comfort
All I wanted was the truth
A-dickdum-di...

All I wanted was the truth
Dickdum-di...
