

Feels Right

Biig Piig

Outside my guy is tryna find a little spare time
Unwind with me a little
I've got red wine no lie
And since there's two of us
Let's put the tunes on up loud
I wanna see what you make me do
And how
I know you think it may be too soon
Come round and show me what you've got

I heard you wanna be in the driver's seat
So keep up
Do you promise me that you'll honor me
Don't give up
'Cause it feels right

And if I follow you I know that I should hesitate but it feels right
Just the thought of you gives me the taste I know I'll crave
But it feels right
And if I follow you I know that I should hesitate but it feels right
Just the thought of you gives me the taste I know I'll crave
But it feels right

Fine lines
Don't step unless you're ready now to make him upset
I wouldn't take you for the shy type
Not yet but then again who knows
Hunny there's no ties no net
You've got to follow with your instinct
What's next
No sense in trying to find reason or regret
When nothing's set in stone

I heard you wanna be in the driver's seat
So keep up
Do you promise me that you'll honor me
Don't give up
'Cause it feels right

And if I follow you I know that I should hesitate but it feels right
And just the thought of you gives me the taste I know I'll crave but it feels right
And if I follow you I know that I should hesitate but it feels right
And just the thought of you gives me the taste I know I'll crave but
it feels right
And if I follow you I know that I should hesitate but it feels right
And just the thought of you gives me the taste I know I'll crave but
it feels right
