I've lost track of days it seems the way you make me feel erase s them
It's funny how that works, hey
The middle ground between "hello" and "where'd you think you're going"
Like I'm floating, man this silly talk is pretty though
Let's stay right here
That you don't know exactly what it means to me
To disappear with somebody and not feel so alone
Enough of that though
Let's sit back
And rediscover touch
I guess that we could call this love
Well if you want to let's let go
