

Charmaine

Bill Haley

I wonder why you keep me waiting
Charmaine, my Charmaine
I wonder when bluebirds are mating
Will you come back again?

I wonder if I keep on praying
Will our dreams still seem the same?
I wonder if you ever think of me too
Charmaine, I'm waiting just for you

I wonder if I keep on praying
Will our dreams still seem the same?
I wonder if you ever think of me too
Charmaine, I'm waiting just for you
