

Old Friend

Bill Medley

Don't be Cruel, Teddy Bear, dancing hips and long black hair,
Old friend you crossed my mind today.
Las Vegas Hotel, Graceland, sweet young daughter & million fans
Old friend, you touched my heart today.

If I listen real close in the still of the night,
I can hear your voice saying you're all right,
Close my eyes, open my soul, touch the King of Rock n Roll,
Old friend it's good to feel you once again.

You shook us all up, you loved us tender,
Caught us in a trap, we all surrendered,
Uh huh, oh yea, loving you.
Don't, don't, baby treat me nice, I'm falling in love with you.

I can sit down put your records on,
7 sad years are suddenly gone,
God you were young, it doesn't seem fair,
Would you be here if I could have been there,
Old friend my heart is crying once again.

Trapped here on earth, your Mother is free,
A lonely pain we refused to see,
Old friend you touched my heart today,
Old friend I'm missing you once again.

I'm missing you once again.
