The Vision

Bill Miller

I heard a voice callin' out to me might've been a vision might've been a dream it said some things will come and some will go we're only here a moment don't you know i don't claim to have all the answers and i've got my share of questions but if i don't follow blindly it doesn't mean i've lost my way i'm still on the journey headed down the road less traveled i guess we're all gonna get there in our own time and way

there's a bridge that leads to the other side you'll know you've crossed when you arrive everyone will have a tale to tell i'm gonna quench my thirst when i drink from that well
