Foggy River

Bill Monroe

Your love is colder than a foggy river Rollin on a heart of stone You left me stranded on this foggy river Cold and helpless and alone

I knew someday that you would turn me down I got worries on my mind Yes I'm doomed to sail this foggy river Till I leave my love behind

There's no tomorrow on this foggy river Only memories linger on A mist of sorrows fills this foggy river Everything I had is gone

I can't escape this broken heart of mine I've no freedom anymore Heaven help me on this foggy river Till I reach that distant shore
