Every Sixty Seconds

Bill Wyman

Every sixty seconds
I think of you
Every sixty minutes
I need you too

Every twenty four hours
Of the day
Won't you come back baby
Im blowing my life away

Every seven days
Of the week
Let me lean on you baby
Stop crying myself to sleep

Im feeling cold
And the old winter wind
Cuts me down

Im feeling oh so cold
So warm me for a minute
Cause a minute is all it takes to do it

Every twenty four hours
Of the day
Won't you come back baby
Im blowing my life away

Won't you come baby
Im blowing my life away

Come baby backy
Im blowing my life away
