

I'd Rather

Billie Marten

You're neither beauty nor grace
The world revolves around the ones you hate
Why do you try so hard to be things you're not

And I would rather be alone
Than in a lonely crowd
Would you notice if I ever left it there

On your own
That's where time goes
Leave me down
I would rather be around
The ones who care
The ones who

If there's a chance you'll change your mind
If there's a path you must take
I'd do it now before it all becomes too late

On your own
That's where time goes
Leave me down
I would rather be around
The ones who care
The ones who

Of all the choices you have made
It picks apart to leave a trace of this
And, I've never seen such bitter sweet
Through all the signals that you leave in time

On your own
That's where time goes
Leave me down
I would rather be around
The ones who care
The ones who