

Anchor Man

Billy Currington

He'll drop her down and fish a while
Pull it up and drift a mile
Then drop her down again
He's the Anchor Man

Years ago in another life
He read the headlines for channel five
'Til he had all he could stand
Bought a boat called 'The Anchor Man'

Now there ain't no bad news, only good views
The sky and the water are the only blues
The only deadline is chasing sunshine
Peace of mind the only plan
For the Anchor Man

A perfect day by design
A couple dandies on the line
Dealt a lucky hand once again
To the Anchor Man

Oh, there ain't no bad news, only good views
The sky and the water are the only blues
The only deadline is chasing sunshine
Peace of mind the only plan
For the Anchor Man

Salt air and freedom is right where he belongs
He drinks a beer and just cruises on
Mm

He'll drop her down and fish a while
Pull it up and drift a mile
Then drop her down again
He's the Anchor Man
