

Deja Vu

Billy Currington

I know you think I've seen you
Somewhere on a TV, somewhere in a song
Your face is so familiar
I bet I probably know you, maybe I don't
You look like the soundtrack of our time, the ocean
But I think I just feel you
Your vibe is so real, you remind me of home

Maybe you'll look my way
Maybe you don't
Maybe I'll go say hey
Maybe I won't

I've got memories about, memories about you
I don't know why they always come through
Time after time, we've been here before
Baby, you're my deja vu
I've got memories about, memories about you
Something I want, maybe you want too
Gimme a sign, say I'm the one
Baby, you're my deja vu

This happened in my last dream
Now we're in a cafe just like in my mind
I'm gonna try to get through
What I wanna say to you, I'm thinkin' that it's time

Maybe you'll fall for me
Maybe you won't
Maybe think I'm in too deep
And maybe you don't

I've got memories about, memories about you
I don't know why they always come through
Time after time, we've been here before
Baby, you're my deja vu
I've got memories about memories about you
Something I want, maybe you want too
Gimme a sign say I'm the one
Baby, you're my deja vu

You're my deja, deja vu
You're my deja, deja vu

I've got memories about, memories about you
I don't know why they always come through
Time after time, we've been here before
Baby, you're my deja vu
I've got memories about, memories about you
Something I want, maybe you want too
Gimme a sign, say I'm the one
Baby, you're my deja vu

I've got memories about, memories about you
(They keep coming back to me)
I don't know why they always come through
Time after time, we've been here before

Baby, you're my deja vu
I've got memories about, memories about you
(You're my deja, deja)
Something I want, maybe you want too
(Deja vu)
(You're my deja, deja)
Gimme a sign, say I'm the one
Baby, you're my deja vu
