

Moon & Back

Billy Currington

Just yesterday you said those words
They were always the sweetest I ever heard
I'd say 'em to you, you'd say them to me all the time
And I still hear you say 'em in my mind

I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
I still love you to the moon and back
But right here with me ain't where you're at
Leaving at dawn, I will be waiting on
The sun to be shining on you
I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
Oh, I love you to the moon and back
I'm still on track

We can't control the heart can change
I want you to know I feel the same
I'll always be here, the memories we share won't ever fade
And when you find yourself, you'll hear me say

I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
I still love you to the moon and back
But right here with me ain't where you're at
Leaving at dawn, I will be waiting on
The sun to be shining on you
I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
Oh, I love you to the moon and back
I'm still on track

Oh, you need to know that I miss you so
And without you don't feel right

I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
I still love you to the moon and back
But right here with me ain't where you're at
Leaving at dawn I will be waiting on
The sun to be shining on you
I love you to the moon and back
But right now the moon ain't where you're at
Oh, I love you to the moon and back
I'm still on track
