

Words

Billy Currington

Closed eyes, crying
I hold you close to me
Inside, dying
Emotions running deep

The silence is everything I wanna say

'Cause words won't do
To explain how I feel for you
Words won't do
They just say but they don't speak to you
They can't define me
Or how much I care like I do
Words don't explain
How I feel for you
For you, for you, for you

While we're, dancing
I treasure this love so much
Those worn out sayings
I say about us

And God only knows that I'ma show you in time

'Cause words won't do
To explain how I feel for you
Words won't do
They just say but they don't speak to you
They can't define me
Or how much I care like I do
Words don't explain
How I feel for you
For you, for you, for you

'Cause words won't do
To explain how I feel for you
Words won't do
They just say but they don't speak to you
They can't define me
Or how much I care like I do
Words don't explain
How I feel for you
For you, for you, for you
