

Don't Knock Upon My Door

Billy Fury

Don't knock upon my door
Don't want you anymore
Don't love you as before
You gone and made me sour
You're the fool, I ain't your fool no more
Don't wait around for me
I warned you, can't you see
Well, I got somebody new
And she ain't mean like you
You're the fool, I ain't your fool no more
Well, I've warned you once or twice
But you're as cold as ice
I'll warn you just once more
Don't you knock upon my door
Don't wait around my home
You know I ain't alone
Well, you broke a heart so true
When you said we were through
You're the fool, I ain't your fool no more It's such a pity 'Cause you're so pretty
I'll keep you on a frame
Honey you'll do most anything
Don't knock upon my door
Don't want you anymore
Don't love you as before
You gone and made me sour
You're the fool, I ain't your fool
You're the fool, I ain't your fool
You're the fool, I ain't your fool no more
