It matters that the workd knows
We must celebrate the gift of life Everyday in some way we must always remember to play after every storm
All children are truly blessed With the innocent gifts of gentleness, trust, and compassion
To guide the wisdom of the grown-ups
We all have a song in our heart that inspires us in good times and hard times
If we take the time to listen

[Chorus:]

It matters, it matters, oh, it matters that the world knows

Our senses help discover the hidden and non-hidden Enchantment in life, if we use them

We must carefully choose our words and wants

Or we could forever hurt others with these dangerous weapons

Strength and calue of all things created

Must be measured by character and commitment

Rather than by might and by wealth

[Repeat Chorus]

We must head the lessons of everyday life Through the celebration of children and heartsongs, senses and words Or we could lose in our journey to the future

It matters

A person by my name and being existed With a strong spirit and an eternam mindset To become a peacemaker for all By sharing the things that really matter.
