Billy Howerdel

Did you ever see those visions?
Cracks and temple erosion
I lost myself in these illusions
Standing in my truth before I fall again

Did you ever think ascension
Could turn you into something frightening?
I swam and drank from these illusions
But just got back from my awakening

Alone, alone, alone, alone, alone again
With these thoughts, my only friend
Alone, alone, alone, alone, alone again

Alone, alone, alone, alone, alone again
With these thoughts, my only friend
Alone, alone, alone, alone, alone
