

Cry

Billy Idol

Lighten my darkness, 'cos heavy's my soul
You can change everything with the world, you're in control
When I swim to the stars, against the flow
Like the waves of the ocean, you come and go
But in my life, the seeds I've sown
And all these feelings, oh they crash and roll

Do you want me to cry
Do you want me to fly
Can you show me a sign
Because I don't know why
Or is it written in stone
I gave you my throne
But you wanted to ride
Girl you gotta decide
Do you want me to cry

You look away, as I say
See my wheels are spinning, turnin' 'round everyday
You're always on my mind, in the night time
You can change everything in my world, girl I wanna survive

Do you want me to cry
Do you want me to fly
Can you give me a sign
Because I don't know why
Oh is it written in stone
Ya see I gave you my throne
But you wanted to ride
Girl you gotta decide, woah yeah
Do you want me to cry

Do you want me to cry

You're always gonna try to get what you want
You're always gonna fight me, oh yeah
You're always gonna play all of your games
Yes it's so frightening, oh yeah

Whatcha gonna do when sun shines bright
The storm is over, oh yeah
Whatcha gonna do at the rainbows end
It's beautiful, oh yeah

Whooa Yeah

Do you want me to cry
Do you want me to fly
Can you give me a sign
Because I don't know why
Oh, is it written in stone
See I gave you my throne
But you wanted to ride

Do you want me to cry
Do you want me to fly

Can you give me a sign
Ooh, is it written in stone
See I gave you my throne
And you wanted to ride
Girl you gotta decide, yeah
Do you want me to cry
