

The Greatest Love

Billy Joe Royal

Your other love
Buys you pretty clothes and all the fine things and Heaven only knows that I wish I could
Your other love
Dances and he sings and swings and says all the witty little things t hat a playboy should

He's got money
He's got charm
And when you're walking arm and arm it hurts me so
But I'm going let you go

And it's not easy
Heaven knows, I tried
Wish the best for you
Push myself aside

It takes the greatest love
That you'll ever find
To let you walk away
Leaving me behind
And that's the greatest love

Mmm

Your other love
He's got the power to entertain you each and every hour
The day and night

Your other love
He's got the ways and the means to show you all the wild scenes where the lights are bright

Ah, but love should never be possessed
So don't you cry and be depressed
You're free to go

But I just want you to know
It's not easy
Heaven knows, I tried
To wish the best for you
Pushed myself aside

It takes the greatest love
That you'll ever find
To let you walk away
Leaving me behind
And that's the greatest love

Whoa, oh, oh
