

Balance

Billy Lockett

I'm not a wild man, I'm not a crazy guy
But I know I'm genuine. So, sit and watch, I'll tell you why
And I'm not a superhero, and I'm not a movie star
But when you're around, I make you feel like you are Like you are

So, let's go to the attic, let's go to the shops
Let's grab the old red carpet, wear the dress with polka dots
Pretend that we're stars walking down Leicester Square
Or actors in a movie on a secret love affair
Love affair

So, stick by me and I'll tell you
There's light at the end
Stick by me and I'll show you
That all you need is a friend
So, don't balance out the window
And smirk with your eyes
Don't balance on a spindle
And smile when you know I'm uptight

We're sitting in this empty room with no furniture
The money's running low and the future is a blur
And I know it won't be easy but please just wait and see
One day we'll be where we want to be Want to be

So, stick by me and I'll tell you
There's light at the end
Stick by me and I'll show you
That all you need is a friend
So, don't balance out the window
And smirk with your eyes
Don't balance on a spindle
And smile when you know I'm uptight

Take my hand, spin me around
Dance like a fool, dance, dance around
Take my hand, spin me around
Dance like a fool, dance, dance around
Take my hand, spin me around
And dance like a fool, dance, dance around

So, stick by me and I'll tell you
There's light at the end
Stick by me and I'll show you
That all you need is a friend
So, don't balance out the window
And smirk with your eyes
Don't balance on a spindle
And smile when you know I'm uptight
