

Don't Worry

Billy Lockett

I swear for a second, your eyes they were telling me
You need a little bit more
And we've been talking for days, and you say it's just a phase
I promise I'll prove you wrong

There's something 'bout the way we flow
It's kinda cool that no one knows
You're my forbidden fruit in the forest
I'm a sucker for sorries, but it's too late to run

So, for one last time

Will you forget all your worries?
Come let me hold you by my side
Will you forget how it started?
Throw down your guard and realise
Time is slow when we're both laying low under the covers
So will you, will you forget all your worries?
Come let me hold you by my side
I'll be there every time

Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Don't worry

Funny thing about us is we confuse love and lust
And when it rains it pours
You've been running out of ways you can drive it all away
You've been hiding, and enough is enough

There's something 'bout the way we flow
It's kinda cool that no one knows

So, for one last time

Will you forget all your worries?
Come let me hold you by my side
Will you forget how it started?
Throw down your guard and realise
Time is slow when we're both laying low under the covers
So will you, will you forget all your worries?
Come let me hold you by my side
I'll be there every time

I swear I'm speaking sense for once, just hear me out, alright?
I don't wear bucket hats or man bags, and comic books are life
I guess you might say I'm a nerd, but I just know the things I like
And to me there's nothing cooler than being proud of what's inside
And there's nothing worse than thinking the only way you'll climb
Is by fitting in with others, pushing honesty aside
'Cause I was that guy for a fucking long time
Through school, and after, in fact I've only just realised
That I love being myself and god you should too
So be proud of what you love 'cause you're the only you

Will you forget all your worries?

Come let me hold you by my side
Will you forget how it started?
Throw down your guard and realise
Time is slow when we're both laying low under the covers
So will you, will you forget all your worries?
Come let me hold you by my side
I'll be there every time

Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Don't worry
I'll be there every time

Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Don't worry
I'll be there every time

Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Don't worry
I'll be there every time

Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Doo-doo-doo
Don't worry
I'll be there every time
