

Drowning Mind

Billy Lockett

I wish I didn't fall for the things that hurt the most
I'm done with learning my lesson
I guess I lost control, but I lost it years ago
I hear them calling from heaven

And if I'm honest
I've forgotten what I want
I need your warning
'Cause I don't think I can stop
Even though we said I keep coming back
Every time I'm weak, I can see your hand
And I feel your breath running down my neck
Even though it hurts, I still want you there

Let me go inside one more time
I'll be in your blood, drowning mind
Let me go inside one more time
I'll be in your blood, drowning mind

Drowning mind
Drowning mind

And if I'm honest
I've forgotten what I want
I need your warning
'Cause I don't think I can stop
Even though we said I keep coming back
Every time I'm weak, I can see your hand
And I feel your breath running down my neck
Even though it hurts, I still want you there

Let me go inside one more time
I'll be in your blood, drowning mind
Let me go inside one more time
I'll be in your blood, drowning mind
