Billy Lockett

Eyes on the road ahead
I'm forgetting my reflection now
Drowning in words unsaid
Trying to hide what's inside underground

If I could have back all the times that we argued
Maybe I'd see it through your eyes not mine
If I could have back all the time we fell silent
I'm alright, I'll be fine, I'm a liar

'Cause deep down I more than just miss you
The truth is I more-oh-oh than just care
Deep down I more than just need you
Truth is I'm more-oh-oh than just scared
'Cause you're still alive in my head

Hand on a stranger again
If I cover it up will it turn into love?
How long will I pretend?
Try to hide what's inside up above

If I could have back all the times that we argued
Maybe I'd see it through your eyes not mine
If I could have back all the time we fell silent
I'm alright, I'll be fine, I'm a liar
I'm alright, I'll be fine, I'm a liar

'Cause deep down I more than just miss you
The truth is I more-oh-oh than just care
Deep down I more than just need you
Truth is I'm more-oh-oh than just scared
'Cause you're still alive in my head
