

Sushi

Billy Lockett

I wish I didn't call late at night
I wish we didn't have drunken fights
I wish I wasn't losing all sight
Of what I am
I wish hadn't been here before
I wish I hadn't slammed your front door
I wish I wasn't losing control, but I am

I know that you're upset
Would you forgive, forget?

If I take you out for sushi on Ivory Lane
We'll get cheap tattoos of both our names
If we sneak in swanky bars on East Park Parade
Would you forgive me?
Would you forget?

I wish I wasn't high as a kite
I wish I didn't waste of your time
I wish I could've seen through I'm fine
And tried to help
And I know you're more than a little upset
Just try forgive, forget
Yeah, if you wanna come back home, pick up the phone

I'll take you out for sushi on Ivory Lane
We'll get cheap tattoos of both our names
If we sneak in swanky bars on East Park Parade
Would you forgive me?
Would you forget?

I know that you're upset
Would you forgive, forget?

If I take you out for sushi on Ivory Lane
We'll get cheap tattoos of both our names
If we sneak in swanky bars on East Park Parade
Would you forgive me?
Would you forget?

If I take you out for sushi on Ivory Lane
We'll get cheap tattoos of both our names
If we sneak in swanky bars on East Park Parade
Would you forgive me?
Would you forget?
