Billy Marchiafava

Walk up in the bank, they ask me if I live here
New tires, it's been a good year
I just had a nightmare I wasn't balling
Woke up in sweat, got scared
Knock, knock, open up the door, it's me
I'm only here to collect that U-O-me
POV, you're tryna understand
How a geek like me got USD

If you wanna do something you better do it
You got a dream, you better go and pursue it (go pursue it)
Keep waiting, you're better off in the sewer
You a clown, get it?
Forty five minutes on that five-lane highway
Turning signal on, I'm a nice guy, Tom Hanks
Dinner with your mom and she cooking a nice steak
Surf's up, baby, gotta dip like a big lake

Keep on dripping like drip drop drizzle
And facts I'm spitting, y'all sweet like cinnamon
Cars got plenty of them, sike got one of them
I'm pretty sure I'm broke by thirty one

Take a breath
If the money turn right I ain't taking a left
Jotting down bars using autocorrect
Running down the street, Billy breaking a sweat
Drop song, get paid, then what's next?
Hit the road, do shows, I ain't taking a jet
'Cause I'm cruising, cruising
Hear your song then I'm snoozing, snoozing
You got money well then prove it, prove it
I keep going, Billy a nuisance
Need a stu with good acoustics

Who knew audio files could
Be so valuable, I'm Rocking pink crocs with Yellow inflatables, I'm
Made up of molecules like you
Mhm, invincible, I'm Ballin like Nicholas Cage
My treasure's national

If you wanna do something you better do it
You got a dream, you better go and pursue it
Keep waiting, you're better off in the sewer
You a clown, get it?
Forty five minutes on that five-lane highway
Turning signal on, I'm a nice guy, Tom Hanks
Dinner with your mom and she cooking a nice steak
Surf's up, baby, gotta dip like a big lake

(If you wanna do something you better do it
You got a dream, you better go and pursue it
Keep waiting, you're better off in the sewer
You a clown, get it?)
