

Pleasure

Billy Ocean

Pleasure

I'm addicted to all that you can do

Oh baby

It's pleasure loving you

Some people push it to the limit

Some people live on the edge

But sooner or later

We all have to come back down

When there is a cloud on my horizon and

Pressure is up ahead

That's when I run to you

So good to have you around

Ooh baby

When I need a holiday

I need to get away with you

It's the pleasure that keeps me running back to you

I'm addicted to all of the things you do

You know how to please me through and through

It's just pleasure of loving you

Just loving you

That's all I wanna do

Too busy reaching for the glory

And reaching out for a star

Watch out for the danger

Sometimes we go too far

When the walls close in around me and

I can't take anymore

No matter the distance

I'll come to you

Where you are

Ooh baby

When I need a holiday

I need to get away with you

It's the pleasure that keeps me running back to you

I'm addicted to all of the things you do

You know how to please me through and through

It's just pleasure of loving you

Baby you don't have to worry

Oh no no no no

Because the love I've found is safe and sound with you

Ooh baby

When I need a holiday

I need to get away with you

It's the pleasure that keeps me running back to you

I'm addicted to all of the things you do

You know how to please me through and through

It's just pleasure of loving you

You baby

It's all I want to do

That's all I wanna do

Is love you

Love you
That's all I want to do
It's just the pleasure of loving you
When there's a cloud on my horizon baby
I keep running back to you
Cause I love the things you do
You give me pleasure
