The time has come for bad things to end The time has come, for life to begin The time has come for the war of the gods

Lucifer, oh Lucifer
God of evil, you're the god of hate
We see you every day
Father of the lie
You made man die
Where the light shines
You run and hide

The darkness is where you find your delight
Master of tricks, the master of pain
I said;
"You're the one, you're the one who has no shame"

Lucifer, Satan, the Devil's your name
Do you have the time to get your army ready
You know love conquers all
Will you stand, will you stand
Or will you fall

The time has come, for bad things to end The time has come, for life to begin The time has come, for the war of the gods

God is just a title
It's like calling somebody
Father, preacher, president, or general

Allah, Buddha, Hare Krishna Jehovah, just to mention a few Some people even call- call Jesus god too

Love, peace, and eternal light is your reward To anyone who knocks on your doors
There's only one God it's true
You know the names are not the same
One day the people of the world
Will know your real name

You are The Strong and you are The Mighty I hope I'm with you when they start the fighting The war of the gods

Love, peace, and eternal life
That's what I want (That's what I want, that's what I want, that's what I want)
Love, peace, and eternal life

Is what I want (That's what I want, that's what I want, that's what I want)

God! God!

God!
You are The Strong and you are The Mighty
I hope I am with you when they start the fighting
Lord!

Lucifer, Satan, the Devil's your name Have you had time
To get your army ready?
To get your army ready?

Lucifer, god of evil, hate!
We see you everyday
The father of the lie
The light shines, you run and hide

The darkness is where— is where— is where Is where— is where

Gotta talk about you because that's where you find your delight

God!

Hard morning [?]

God!

You make me feel so good, good morning

Goa!

We gonna talk about Lucifer, Lucifer, Lucifer God!

Kicked you out of heaven 'cause you didn't pay your rent

Kicked you out of heaven 'cause you didn't pay your rent God!

Kicked you out of heaven 'cause you didn't pay your rent And He is The Strong and He is The Mighty You gotta be with him when you start to fight it
