

I don't wanna fight no more
I don't wanna lose myself in this
Spinning out of control
Somewhere on the road to happiness
I got lost and I paid the cost

I need another love song, baby I'm sick
Of waking up with sad songs stuck in my head
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And another love song, gimme something
I don't wanna wake up feelin' nothin'
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And a double shot of bliss

I really only wrote this song
Hopin' one day you'd be listenin'
I've been on my own so long
I could really use a helping hand
I got lost and I paid the cost

I need another love song, baby I'm sick
Of waking up with sad songs stuck in my head
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And another love song, gimme something
I don't wanna wake up feelin' nothin'
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And a double shot of bliss
And a double shot of bliss

I need another love song, baby I'm sick
Of waking up with sad songs stuck in my head
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And another love song, gimme something
I don't wanna wake up feelin' nothin'
I wish I was a young dumb kid again
Gimme a hit of ignorance
And a double shot of bliss
And a double shot of bliss
And a double shot of
