

Get Along

Billy Raffoul

Dark brown eyes set above a perfect smile
I'll say "Hi" it's just gonna take a while
'Cause even though we have never met before
In my mind we've been talking up a storm

To avoid the aching tension you deploy ice-breaking questions

If you could be anyone?
I say "Easy, Lennon, in sixty-one"
You say "My dad's a Stones' fan since he was young
Hope you two get along"

Steady now I think we found common ground
I'm wishing that I could speak your politics
To avoid the aching tension you deploy ice-breaking questions like

If you could be anyone?
I say "Easy, Lennon, in sixty-one"
You say "My dad's a Stones' fan since he was young
Hope you two get along"

If you could be anyone?
I say "Easy, Lennon, in sixty-one"
You say "My dad's a Stones' fan since he was young"
Ohh...

If you could be anyone?
I say "Easy, Lennon, in sixty-one"
You say "My dad's a Stones' fan since he was young
Hope you two get along"

You better get along

You better get along
