

Hell or High Water

Billy Raffoul

You never know what tomorrow may bring
The woman lyin' next to you
Could be a memory
I've idolized, I've memorized your face
Just in case I need it to last for eternity
It's a shame that it ain't enough for me

Life's for the living, I won't be giving up
'Cause you taught me how to, you taught me how to love
Take all I cherish, beat me 'til my body's numb
But, life's for the living, I won't be giving up
On you
On you
On you
On you

I should have known, should have tried to hold on

And never left your heart where it don't belong
If the wind would change, bring you back again, my love
Come Hell or high water, we will rise above
You are what I believe in
You are enough

Life's for the living, I won't be giving up
You taught me how to, you taught me how to love
Take all I cherish, beat me 'til my body's numb
But life's for the living, I won't be giving up
On you
On you
On you
On you

Even though, I know you'd tell me to