

Until The Hurting Is Gone

Billy Raffoul

Hate to be vulnerable
Yeah you get hurt and it shows
Never know what I killed before
So much love it overflows

I feel your warmth giving up
Saying please don't let me down

I won't tell her
I won't head for the door
'Cause I'm yours for better or worse
Darling, know that you're never alone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone
Gone

Hate to be powerless
But some things you cannot face
Some things you cannot control
But you can choose to let 'em go

I feel your warmth giving up
Saying please don't let me down

I won't tell her
I won't head for the door
'Cause I'm yours for better or worse
Darling, know that you're never alone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone

Gone
Oh yeah
Gone
Oh yeah
Gone

I won't tell her
I won't head for the door
'Cause I'm yours for better or worse
Darling, know that you're never alone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone
I will lay with you until the hurting is gone
