

Without Falling In Love

Billy Raffoul

I'm fast, baby, don't trespass
I'm convenient, not built to last, I'm from
One of those broken homes on the prairie
You said, it's fine by me, I won't fight
I don't need your reasons why
I'm no stranger to engagements of the body

And I hear my name at the top of your lungs
I can't pretend we're only havin' fun

Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Oh, I'm trippin' over you, trippin' over me
I don't know how we ever believed (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
We were only gonna have some fun
Without falling in love

You're scared, baby, I like it
A bit too much, it's more than lust, and I'm Lyin' to my friends 'bout where I've been
And I'm lost, baby, in your clothes
Hair as dark as your skin is fair
And the nights are long but never long enough

And I hear my name at the top of your lungs
I can't pretend we're only havin' fun

Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Oh, I'm trippin' over you, trippin' over me
I don't know how we ever believed (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
We were only gonna have some fun
Only gonna have some—
Without falling—

Without falling in—
(Trippin' over you, trippin' over me
Trippin' over you, trippin' over me)

Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
Without falling in love (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
(Oh, my, my, my, my, my)
Oh, I'm trippin' over you, trippin' over me
I don't know how we ever believed (oh, oh-oh, oh-oh)
We were only gonna have some fun
(Oh, my, my, my, my, my)
Without falling in love
