

Young

Billy Raffoul

Young
Young

I don't like it any more than you do
Things will never be the way they used to, darling
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh
But keep me in your heart as a reminder
No matter what, you're always gonna be my darling
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh

'Cause some things change, but not us
I'm still the same boy you loved

When we were young
Young
When we were young
Young
We fell apart, we fell in love
When it got hard, we got tough
When we were young

A friend of mine is swimming in the deep end
He'll lie and say it's only on the weekends, honest
Oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh-oh
But you can see in his eyes that something's changed
As he trades in tomorrow for today
All right
Oh, oh-oh
All night
Oh, oh-oh

When you're in town, look me up
Pulling all the same old stunts

When we were young
Young
When we were young
Young
When you get down, he picks you up
Don't forget where you came from

When we were young
Young
Oh, when we were young
Young
We fell apart, we fell in love
When it got hard, we got tough
When we were young

Young
Oh, when we were young
Young