Doin' Things Right

Billy Strings

I keep doin' things right
It's like I can't do wrong
Man, I feel so tired
It's prob'ly 'cause I've been awake so long

And I got a little rhythm
Playin' through my head
And I'd like to keep it goin'
Otherwise I might wake up dead

We gotta stick together, baby, through thick and thin
If we're gonna see the sun come up again
It don't matter where you're from, what shade you are
Keep a-reachin' for the sun and the moon and the stars

When you're feeling all alone
You need some ears to pull
You can call me up, baby
'Cause you know my heart is feelin' full

It's a peaceful easy livin'
Down here on Earth
With my eyes on the bright side

We gotta stick together, baby, through thick and thin
If we wanna see the sun come up again
It don't matter where you're from, baby, what shade you are
Keep a-reachin' for the sun and the moon and the stars

You couldn't tell me no rules
I wouldn't learn sometime
And if I did you wrong
You know eventually I'm gonna get mine

It's just the way of the world
She's got the master plan
And with her in mind
You know I'm tryin' to be a better man

Come and listen, little children
To the words I say
We've got to stand together
To put an end to hate today

It don't matter where you're from
Or what age you are
Well you can make the difference
You can be somebody's shooting star

We gotta stick together, baby, through thick and thin
If you wanna see the sun come up again
No matter where you're from, what age you are
You keep reachin' for the sun and the moon and the stars
