Freedom

Billy Strings

All white as snow and black as night
You know you can't give up the fight
There with the stars up in the sky
The angel band sings by and by

I want to walk, I can't sit down
I want the road, I want the crown
Fear not the day when all is lost
This Earthly wealth ain't worth the cost

Shadows and light in pairs that cling
Allow your soul the right to sing
All through the night, the moon will shine
The whispers heard defeat the time

Allowed to be with feasting eyes
And life alone, it is the prize
And all the things you thought you knew
Accuse the sky of being blue
