

In The Morning Light

Billy Strings

So in the morning when I see her in the light
She comes through to me in any kind of weather
And I know I'll never see a brighter day when she smiles with her eyes
Even with a clouded heart chocked full of doubt
She can sing away the worry of rejection
She's a wonder to behold I'll love her
Till I'm growing old and that's the plan

But if I could find more that's worthy
I'd surrender it all
I'm not sure that I deserve the love that I receive
But I give it all to her

Captivating when she moves across the floor
I remember what it is I came here for
And it seems so easy now
I can't believe it but somehow, I made her mine
And every now and then the past will ring a bell
And I'm not looking back I'm only moving forward
If I knew then what I do now
I wouldn't be here anyhow, but it's been clear

But if I could find more that's worthy
I'd surrender it all
I'm not sure that I deserve the love that I receive
But I give it all to her

So if I come to some conclusion by tonight
I'll be free from all the sorrow I've been drinking
Swear I'll never let her down
I couldn't bear to hear the sound of her steps leaving
And in the evening when the sun is running low
I'll walk bravely through the fields of burning ember
And I'll remember everything she said to me back
When our love was first in bloom

But if I could find more that's worthy
I'd surrender it all
All the praise that I could earn
Means nothing without hers
Not sure that I deserve, all the love that I receive
But I give it all to her
