

For You

Billy Talent

If I told you I'd travel through time
So the stars would align for you
Would you think I was out of my mind?
Left a sign down the line for you
'Cause I'll wait in the rain by the tracks
'Til the last train comes back with you

Life is nothing but ordinary without you

And I will be your parachute
When the wind takes you too high
Yeah, I would be your sanctuary
When rivers start to rise

If you're lost, I would light up the sky
Search the earth far and wide for you
I would crawl to the tall grass for miles
Across enemy lines for you
And if your sense of hope self-destructs
Know I'll never give up on you

Love is nothing but ordinary without you

'Cause I will be your parachute
When the wind takes you too high
Yeah, I would be your sanctuary
When rivers start to rise

I'll never leave you standing here alone in the dark
I'll never leave you standing here alone in the dark
I'll always shine a lantern from this lighthouse to your heart
And nothing can come between (Between)
Between our limitless love
Imagine that you could see (Could see)
Beyond the oceans of love
And nothing can come between (Between)
Between my arms around yours
This promise will always be (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Your heaven and earth to me (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Oh-oh-oh

I will be your parachute
When the wind takes you too high
Yeah, I would be your sanctuary
When rivers start to rise

I'll never leave you standing here alone in the dark
I'll never leave you standing here alone in the dark
I'll always shine a lantern from this lighthouse to your heart
You'll always have an anchor so we'll never drift apart
