Billy Talent

Up and at 'em
Up and at 'em
Up and at 'em
Up, up, up and at 'em

Can you see me, can you hear me, am I loud and clear?
If you like the beat, so then you like the fear
Because I see that a change can happen
But not by myself, it's with a chain reaction
Listened by many, it's as loud as hell
[?] should've never been sold
Well, life's like a wave when it's all into motion
All these people, they're sick of the notion

'Cause a bunch [?] just loud as hell, yeah
'Cause a bunch [?] just loud as hell, yeah

'Cause, see, I met a boy with a fucked up opinion
With a fucked up project and a fucked up seeing
But would not see what I know was the truth
But if it works for me, it might work for you
So say what you wanna and say what you feel Believe in yourself and your life could be real
'Cause life's like a wave when it's all into motion
All these people, they're sick of the notion

'Cause a bunch [?] just loud as hell, yeah
'Cause a bunch [?] just loud as hell, yeah

Bah-bah-bah-boom!

Please, try to forgive for my microphone
Shot down, get back up and then slaughter 'em all
Now that I covet I realize that I bring you down
To the ground, to the center, 'til there ain't no life
And you know life is what you make of it
But it's a place, do you think it's gonna make the clip?
No way, you see I'm pushin' on the glass
Certainly my intention is to defeat your mask

Defeat your mask
Certainly my intention to defeat your mask
Defeat your mask
Certainly my intention to defeat your
