

Borrowed Time

Billy Woods

Long suffering
Antique MacBook, beat buffering
Stream rhymes
Greenwich Mean Time
Procrastinate, arrive late to my own wake
Still paid respects
Hat came around, told 'em
"Sorry, I know it seems suspect, but I'ma have to write a check
Things have kinda been a mess
Shouldn't be any issues though, but before you deposit hit me with a text"

"Yo, you wouldn't happen to have a cigarette?
Oh, good for you, I pretty much quit too, more or less
Just under a lot of stress"
Of course I remember, that was the best
And that one time at that one place, that was also great
Exchange various what-ifs and updates on who has what kids
'Bout ready to dip first sign of a break
But main man locked in, heart to heart with old friend
Like we gotta start hangin' out again
Just look how quickly it all ends. Did you look at him?
Yeah, I don't think I'm gonna look in Rather remember him how he was back then
Before all that and everything

Living off borrowed time, the clock tick faster
Living off borrowed time, the clock tick faster
