

2016 CAVALIERS (Ohio)

Bilmuri

We both knew that it was over
When that Midwest sun got colder
Stuck in a silent drive on 71 when it was done
'Cause we were never sober

And I couldn't take that look on your face
Couldn't get the strength to say goodbye
Even though we were both tryin'

'Cause we were just a Midwest sundown cigarette
A hot mess that burned out in the end
Lay my head on that snowed-out window
While you're way too drunk to drive me home
We both knew the truth for awhile
Saw that Rust Belt cold freeze over
That Florida smile, I know I had to let you go
'Cause Hell was real, we felt it in Ohio (Felt it in Ohio)

Yeah, we were freezin' to death inside of this bed we made
It's like it's zero degrees, I see every breath I take Swear there's a million different reasons we should walk away
No, but we don't do one thing about it, oh-oh

Let's keep it 100 percent, it just ain't the right time
Once we were perfect together, but look how time flies
We're on the edge of horizon just like a skyline
Two broken hearts don't align

'Cause we were just a Midwest sundown cigarette
A hot mess that burned out in the end
Lay my head on that snowed-out window
While you're way too drunk to drive me home
We both knew the truth for awhile
Saw that Rust Belt cold freeze over
That Florida smile, I know I had to let you go
'Cause Hell was real, we felt it in Ohio (Felt it in Ohio)

(Felt it in Ohio)
(Felt it in Ohio)
(Felt it in Ohio)

'Cause we were just a Midwest sundown cigarette
A hot mess that burned out in the end
Lay my head on that snowed-out window
While you're way too drunk to drive me home
We both knew the truth for awhile
Saw that Rust Belt cold freeze over
That Florida smile, I know I had to let you go
'Cause Hell was real, we felt it in Ohio
