Bilmuri

Did you call me under fire, just to see how long I'd last?
Did you keep me under water, till I'm stuck in broken glass?
Was this all part of the plan, or was it cause and effect?
Did you want to help me make it now, or make sure that I left?
I want to trust you

I need you to love me again
Love me again, love me again
I need you to love me again
Love me again, love me again

Please know my desperate cycles turn true
'Cause I believe that you want me to live
Please know my desperate cycles turn true
I do believe the things you say

Don't let me hate this life
Want you right by my side
Don't let me hate this life
I need you by my side

I need you to love me again
Love me again, love me again
I need you to love me again
Love me again, love me again

Don't take yourself away, 'cause I need your love
Don't take yourself away, 'cause I need your love

Don't take yourself away
'Cause I need your love
Don't take yourself away
'Cause I need your love
