Want anything special for your birthday?
Just a decent cup of coffee
You're kidding?
I'm serious. Honey, your coffee is undrinkable
Pretty harsh
Well, so is your coffee
(Whoa!)

So close, your hand in mine
Give thrives for deeper insight
You move through my veins
You move through every part of me (Pretty harsh)
Take you to places no one else has find relief

I will always love you
I will always love you

Your gloom got through my sight
Oh, my timing left to fight, ooh
Drained out of every part of me (Pretty harsh)
And I think if you would change all my hell, oh

I will always love you
I will always love you
I will always love you
'Cause there's no one else above you

Love me again
Love me again
