

ALL GAS

Bilmuri

Why are you yelling right now?
Nobody needs to talk that loud
You keep repeating yourself
Maybe you need to watch your mouth 'cause you

Stay up, you regret it
Make a memory, then forget it
You should quit it
I should quit it

I keep on falling back into your arms
Yeah, the last call is never enough
It's a slow motion sickness
Please give me forgiveness
When I drink, I just take
'Cause I'm all gas, no brakes

I know you're not good for my health
But sometimes I just can't control myself
You say one more time
Two shots and I'm fine
Three in the morning staring at our bloodshot eyes

I keep on falling back into your arms
Yeah, the last call is never enough
It's a slow motion sickness
Please give me forgiveness
When I drink, I just take
'Cause I'm all gas, no brakes
( 'Cause I'm all gas, no brakes)

Never enough
It's one-sided love
Oh, it's never enough
It's one-sided love
It's never enough
(You stay up, you regret it)
(Make a memory, then forget it)
It's one-sided love
(You stay up, you regret it)
(Make a memory, then forget it)
Oh, it's never enough
(You stay up, you regret it)
(Make a memory, then forget it)
It's one-sided love
(You stay up, you regret it)
(Make a memory, then forget it)

I keep on falling back into your arms (I'm falling)
Yeah, the last call is never enough (No, it is never enough)
It's a slow motion sickness
Please give me forgiveness
When I drink, I just take
'Cause I'm all gas, no brake
Ooh
