

Alone

Bilmuri

I get trapped, stuck in my head
In the same place, it never is it gonna change
Or am I broken?
Will it be the same?
Will it be the same?

I need your hand
I need your love, love

I'm running from shadows
Hiding from nothing
Lock myself away in my room
'Cause I'm scared of everything
I'm paralyzed to go outside

I need your hand
I need your love to make me alive again
Make me alive again
Make me alive again
Make me alive again

Make me alive
I feel alone
