Was it just a lie when you said you love me?
Was it what you wanted me to hear when you said you'd stay?
And it's hard to move when everyone's a ghost
And it's hard to see when they're all blind

What if I catch you falling?
What if I saw you run away?
Oh, what if I catch you falling?
Turn your back on me, turn your back on me

Wandering through life, I got lost again
I keep walking around to see if anyone will stay
'Cause I know that love is always conditional
Take it from my soul and then build you another one

What if I catch you falling?
What if I saw you run away?
Oh, what if I catch you falling?
Turn your back on me, turn your back on me

I just want someone that will stay
I just want someone that will stay with me
What if I catch you falling?
What if I catch you falling?

What if I catch you falling?
What if I saw you run away?
Ooh, what if I catch you falling?
Turn your back on me, turn your back on me

What if I catch you falling?
What if I catch you falling?
