

BETTER HELL (Thicc boi)

Bilmuri

Woo!

I never talk about you
I never even speak your name
After all you put me through
I know you stole a piece of me

So when they ask, "Who hurt you?"
Point the finger at myself but I think of you
It's in the past, but I still do
No, I'm not in heaven yet, but it's a better hell than you

Hoo!

I can't even think about you
I don't even wanna see your face
After the shit you put me through
I know you'll never change

So when they ask, "Who hurt you?"
Point the finger at myself but I think of you
It's in the past, but I still do
No, I'm not in heaven yet, but it's a better hell than you

And everything you do
Couldn't feel the truth
'Til it was raining down on you
There's no second chance
And we can't make amends
When I said I wanna end it
You always pretended
It was never true
(It was never true)

So when they ask, "Who hurt you?"
Point the finger at myself but I think of you
It's in the past, but I still do
No, I'm not in heaven yet, but it's a better hell than you

And everything you do
Couldn't feel the truth
'Til it was raining down on you
There's no second chance
And we can't make amends
When I said I wanna end it
You always pretended
It was never true
(It was never true)

Hey!
