

Wow!

I know you said
That you can't be here anymore
And that you can't take the hurt

I see inside the patterns of your footsteps
Another sunset, but you still feel it again

You flood the room with your tears
And I will hold as many as I can
As many as I can

It stays around like a cancer
A stubborn shadow
And I see the clouds around your head

If you just hold on, we can take this slowly
I need to see your face next to me

You flood the room with your tears
And I will hold as many as I can
As many as I can
You flood my heart with your fears
And I will hold as many as I can
As many as I can

Wow!
