

Faint

Bilmuri

Loneliness
It scratches at the nerve
It tears me limb from limb
And it pulls me under

Emptiness
From being alone
Dissonance
'Cause everyone is gone

And love was not a friend
Just an empty face
It tears me limb from limb
And I'm growing faint

I'm lonely
And I can't take it anymore
I'm lonely
And I can't take it anymore

Will it ever end
Or will I die alone?
Or will this valley in the ground
Be the path that takes me home?

And love was not a friend
Just an empty face
Will it ever fucking end
Or will it be the same?

I'm lonely
And I can't take it anymore
I'm lonely
And I can't take it anymore

I know you're with me and I'm not alone
