

JACKEDANDSTACKEDMASSMONSTER

Bilmuri

I see the marks
Can't remember when they broke
Stuck in my skin
It never feels like enough

Now I feel nothing
And it keeps wearing me down
Stealing my soul again
Hands feel like drones again
I see it wear itself on the cracks in my eyes
See it attach itself onto me
Cause it keeps wearing me thin
This sadness pours through my skin
Will it ever end
Will it ever end

I looked and tried
My heart won't slow
The moment speaks
Distractions stay

I can't find solace in a glass
Can't find rest from the light
Feel the pressure through my ribs
It just loves to kill me

"Everybody wanna be a bodybuilder
But nobody wanna lift this heavy ass weight
I'll DO IT THOUGH
LIGHTWEIGHT BABBAAAAAAY"

I see it wear itself on the cracks in my eyes
See it attach itself onto me
Cause it keeps wearing me thin
This sadness pours through my skin

Will it ever end
Will it ever end
It's always with me
Will it ever end
Will it ever end

Will it ever end
Will it ever end

It's always with me
I feel like I can't escape
It's always with me
I feel like I can't escape
